Module	Language Competence
Area	B – Technical Professional
Objectives	- To enhance students' language skills according to the Common European Framework (Students' language starting level will be assessed prior to the beginning of the course. Classes will be held by mothertongue teachers) - To widen students' sector vocabulary, knowledge of linguistic structures and reading comprehension ability in the consultation of technical texts relevant to the logistics sector
Classroom activities	60 hours
Contents	Grammar and morphosyntactic structures: Verb tenses: present continous; present perfect; past simple; past perfect; future: will or going to, future continuous, future perfect, future perfect continuous; reported speech (statements); adverbs of frequency; passive form; comparatives & superlatives; irregular verbs; adverbs of frequency; yet, just, already, still; mixed conditionals; modal verbs, narrative tenses; phrasal verbs; relative clauses. Technical vocabulary - Introduction to logistics: setting the scene - jobs in logistics - regular activities, useful terms and structures - Logistics services: selling services - online logistics services - acronysms - product ranges - 3PL providers - value-added services, useful terms and structures - Inventory management and procurement: continuous replenishment, job advertisement, useful terms and structures
Laboratory activities	60 hours
Expected learning outcomes	- Acquisition of Cambridge language certifications
Credits (ECTS)	3