

Module	Transport Law (Freight and Passenger)
Area	B – Technical/Professional
Objective	- to deliver a general knowledge and understanding of principles and rules generally applicable to the study of law
Classroom activities	36 hours
Contents	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - International and national legal framework of Transport Contract Law - Evolution of the national legal framework of Road Freight Transport - Transport Contract: key features - Subjects, obligations, performances - Sources of Transport Contract subtypes - Acquisition contracts of transport means availability - Transport Contract: From tariff system to negotiation autonomy – Law 190/2014 - Definition of freight transport (third parties /own account) - Freight hauling: EU profiles and access requirements - International transport contract (CMR) - Intermodal passenger transport - Transport liberalization in Europe - Intermodal mobility guarantee for passengers with impaired mobility - Public local transport and rail transport: general principles
Laboratory activities	N/A
Expected learning outcomes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Acquired knowledge of the fundamental elements of Transport Law - Development of competence in the identification, discussion and application of the main principles of Transport Law to case study scenarios - In-depth understanding of typical transport contracts and effects on transport operations - Demonstrated knowledge of local public transport
Credits (ECTS)	4